

CEED Seminar 2018

Team Duties

Introduction

1. At the CEED Seminar we have an opportunity to present and market the CEED program (and yourselves!) to representatives of a variety of enterprises, including senior technical and HR staff, and senior staff from throughout the university. Our competence, standards of professionalism and attitude will be observed and noted.
2. To present the best possible impression, we need everyone to do their part, look out for anything needing attention, and go the extra mile wherever necessary. Interestingly, our guests often notice who is or is not pulling their weight.

The full CEED Seminar Team

1. The full team comprises; all CEED Scholars, CEED Office staff, and venue staff (usually the University Club). All other people should be treated as important guests.
2. For the event, teams of Scholars will join committees handling the following portfolios:
 - i. Editorial
 - ii. Audiovisual
 - iii. Events

All CEED Scholars are required to join one of these teams.

Editorial Committee duties (5 Scholars + Director)

1. Up to three Session Chairs will direct events during the seminar sessions (one at each session). A Master of Ceremonies will be responsible for hosting the Networking Session. One CEED Scholar will give a speech of thanks at the Networking Function. The Session Chairs, Thank-You Speaker and MC will be drawn from the Editorial Committee. Before the seminar the Editorial Committee will review all seminar papers and provide feedback to authors.
2. Preparation by the Session Chairs and MC on the day of the seminar includes:
 - a. Meeting with all speakers beforehand to discuss the signals to be used for timing control.
 - b. Checking with the Audiovisual Committee and ensuring the session venue is ready.
3. Each Session Chair is responsible for the smooth running of the session, and keeping it on schedule. Duties include:
 - a. Introducing each speaker, giving:
 - Speaker name & school;
 - CEED Partner;
 - Title of talk.
 - b. Strictly controlling times of talks to ensure delegates can move from one session to the other between talks without disturbance.

- c. Directing question time after each talk, adjusting the time allowed to ensure the session remains on schedule.
 - d. If the schedule requires, announcing the end of the first session, announcing the tea break and the re-start time, giving directions as to where tea is served.
 - f. At the end of the session, announcing the completion of the session, and giving directions to the networking session.
4. After the seminar, the MC will:
- a. Welcome participants.
 - b. Announce each speaker during the networking session:
 - Representative of Vice Chancellery or Invited Guest;
 - Speech of thanks (CEED Scholar);
 - CEED Director.
 - c. At the end of speeches and presentations:
 - Thank participants for attending;
 - Declare the formal proceedings for the event end.

Audiovisual Committee duties (4 Scholars – Coordinate with Director)

1. The Audiovisual Committee is responsible for all aspects of setting up, operating, and clearing-up Audiovisual equipment used for the seminar talks.
2. Preparation (for both the Seminar itself and the rehearsal) includes:
 - a. Collecting laptop computers and any other Audiovisual equipment from the CEED Office or other sources.
 - b. Receiving presentation files from speakers, and loading them and any other necessary software onto the relevant laptop computers.
 - c. Setting up and testing Audiovisual equipment and all PowerPoint presentations in each seminar venue.
 - d. Assisting any speakers who wish to check their presentations function properly at the venue.
 - e. Supporting the operation of all Audiovisual equipment during the seminars. This includes intervening if any problems arise at any time during presentations.
3. Clearing up includes:
 - a. Packing up all Audiovisual equipment from each venue.
 - b. Delivering laptop computers and other relevant equipment back to the CEED Office or other source immediately after the seminar (i.e. after the networking session).

Events Committee duties (All remaining Scholars not in Editorial or AV Committee – Coordinate with CEED Admin)

1. The Events Committee is responsible for all aspects of seminar material preparation, setting up the venue, operating the registration desk, and patrolling the venue, assisting any visitors having difficulty locating the registration desk and/or sessions.
2. Preparation includes:
 - a. Preparing name badges in the CEED office the day before the Seminar;
 - b. Prepare Seminar guest handouts (CEED proceedings, program, CEED pen etc) in the CEED office the day before the Seminar;
 - c. Determine appropriate areas for guides to patrol at the seminar venue (The University Club);

3. On the day:
 - a. Collect printed name tags and holders for name badges from the CEED Office, including some without names for extra visitors;
 - b. Collect boxes of Proceedings, pens, programs, CEED Banner, and session timetable posters from the CEED Office and set them up at the Registration desk;
 - c. Set up the CEED Banner near the registration table at UniClub;
 - d. Place session timetables in holders on each session door;
 - e. Staff the Registration desk from at least 30 minutes before the nominated registration time until seminar talks commence;
All delegates should receive:
 - Name-badge;
 - Proceedings;
 - CEED Brochure;
 - CEED pen;
 - Program.
 - f. Patrolling areas around the venue from at least 20 minutes before the nominated registration time until the welcome speech;
 - g. Assisting other teams with extra manpower as needed.

Typically, at least four people should attend to the Registration desk at all times. A CEED staff member will attend the Registration desk at least 15 minutes before the seminar commences.

4. At the completion of the seminar sessions:
 - a. Guide participants from the seminar venue to the location of the Networking Session;
 - b. Assist with clearing up as necessary to minimise the delay in Scholars arriving at the networking session.
5. At the completion of the Networking Session:
 - a. Return the visitor record and unused registration materials and banner back to the CEED Office immediately after the event ends.

Seminar Photographer (1 Scholar – Coordinate with CEED Admin)

1. The Seminar Photographer is responsible for capturing the event via camera.
2. Preparation includes:
 - a. Familiarising yourself with the camera at the rehearsal;
 - b. On the day of the event collect the camera at 1pm, and make sure the battery is fully charged etc;
3. Clearing up includes:
 - a. Returning the camera to CEED Admin at the end of the event.
